

SANTEN SIGNS AGREEMENT WITH JOHNSON & JOHNSON VISION CARE, INC.
TO SUPPLY PRESCRIPTION OPHTHALMIC PRODUCTS

Napa, Calif. (Dec. 18, 2003) -- Santen Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., a leading Japan-based global ophthalmic pharmaceutical company and parent company of Napa, California-based Santen Inc., announced today a U.S. distribution and supply agreement with Johnson & Johnson Vision Care, Inc. (JJVCI) for three prescription ophthalmic pharmaceutical agents. During first quarter 2004, JJVCI will become the exclusive U.S. distributor for the following Santen products: QUIXIN® (levofloxacin ophthalmic solution), BETIMOL® (timolol hemihydrate ophthalmic solution) and ALAMAST® (pemirolast potassium ophthalmic solution).

Santen will continue to have responsibility for manufacturing, clinical and regulatory activities associated with these products. The financial terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

“We are extremely pleased to have formed this relationship with Johnson & Johnson Vision Care,” says Dr. Adrienne Graves, president and CEO of Santen Inc. “Their marketing and sales expertise combined with our established ophthalmic pharmaceutical products will enable both companies to achieve more efficient, effective growth within the U.S. ophthalmic pharmaceutical category.”

JJVCI will build upon Santen’s U.S. sales force to seamlessly continue their current strong relationships with ophthalmologists nationwide.

Daiichi Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. is the licensor of the levofloxacin compound. Mitsubishi Pharma Corporation is the licensor of the pemirolast potassium compound.

Santen Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., founded in Osaka, Japan in 1890, specializes in the research, development, production and marketing of ophthalmic and anti-rheumatic pharmaceuticals and surgical devices.
